2013 EAST COAST
BASIC HOP DODGEBALL
TOURNAMENT
HOSTED BY LIBERTY UNIVERSITY
MARCH 11-14

2009 East Coast Homeschool

With over 10,000 homeschooled students in over 100 groups from all 50 states,

Liberty University has been an extraordinary place in the lives of many people—parents, students, faculty, and staff, among many others. The growth and strength that has been evident in Liberty can only be attributed to the work that God is doing here on the Mountain.

We have qualified faculty, high academic standards, modern and spiritual programs, and state-of-the-art campus facilities—faculty and students are part of the university's 1,000 student-faculty students in over 100 groups and serving young people from all over the world. We also have numerous academic accomplishments in a variety of fields, a commitment to Christian character and integrity that most U.S. students would envy in a very competitive way.

Now is the time for you to discover the unique Liberty University could bring to your life. When you decide to become a student at Liberty, you will get a variety of opportunities to make more than just academic connections that will last the rest of your life—providing friends, values and ministry opportunities to enrich your future.

Please stop by your local homeschool and let us show you why you will profit by seriously considering a part of what God is doing here at Liberty University.

Sincerely,

Brian Knapp

Chancellor

Dear HSPN Team:

As one of the largest operators of hotels in the Lynchburg region, we look forward to the opportunity of providing accommodations for the HSPN Basketball Tournament in Lynchburg, Virginia in March 11-14, 2009.

During the past three years, Liberty University has worked very closely with the Home School Sports Network to bring this exclusive tournament to Lynchburg.

In addition to Liberty University, here is a just a brief list of some nearby attractions that might be of interest to your group:

- Appomattox Court House National Historical Park
- Stratonically recognized Historic Districts
- Blue Ridge Parkway/Appalachian Trail
- Natural Bridge – one of the seven natural wonders
- Red Hill – the Patrick Henry Memorial
- National D-Day Memorial in Bedford
- Old City Cemetery
- Thomas Jefferson's Poplar Forest Retreat
- Discovery Square

We are indeed fortunate to have excellent hotel facilities and attractions in our region and look forward to the opportunity of sharing with them with you! For more information on other regional attractions, please visit www.discoverylynchburg.org.

Kind regards,

SOUTHEAST HOTEL MANAGEMENT

Do You Want to Travel with the Kids, but Can't Afford All the Expenses?

What if you could "switch" homes with another homeschooling family? By exchanging homes you could save hundreds of dollars on accommodations.

Our family has traveled from coast to coast over the past 5 years and experienced 14 fantastic locations that were arranged through home exchanges and hosting service. We have spent a week in a 1700's circa home in Jamestown, Virginia, panned for gold in Coloma, California and explored Hemmingway's Home in Key West, Florida.

These experiences are among the many home exchanges we have participated in that enriched our lives. As a homeschooling mother of three, I know how important these opportunities are to our children and our family.

H.E.L.M.'s small annual membership fee of $30 allows you to opportunity to have similar experiences. Your family will be able to choose from individual home exchange and/or family hosting opportunities.

H.E.L.M. is dedicated to home schooling families that love to travel!

Come Experience, Educate & Enjoy what Home Exchange and Hosting can offer your family.

Basketball Championship

From the Tournament Director:

Greetings and welcome to all fifty teams to the 2009 East Coast Homeschool Championships. Thanks to many of you who make the trip every year, and a heartfelt "howdy" to our new teams.

While HSPN could have focused on rankings and seedings, we would much rather celebrate the fact that your hard work and dedication is what got you here. I am here to make you feel like family and to make sure that you have your best memories here at East Coast 2009.

This tournament, our 13th, is a labor of love and hopefully all of the events and fine details that we have put together this year will be enough to make you proud to be a homeschool athlete participating in a great family-first homeschool event. What ever praises you have for this event, I will redirect to and give thanks to the Lord for having HIS hand on this event. May you face moments at this tournament where for the first or hundredth time, you have the chance to "put on Christ" and play for that audience of one.

For 2009, besides the 127 scheduled games, we bring back the coaches' pickup game, the improved slam-dunk contest, and of course the fabulous 3-pt contest. New this year is voting for all-tournament teams (All-Stars), tournament MVPs, and the creation of actual all-star teams to take on some outside challengers. You'll find the ballots and ballot box at the HSPN information table. MVP winners will be honored at selected half-times and be presented with medals. A great luncheon with special guests is scheduled for Thursday.

Some winners of the 3-pt contest will be presented with super-sized checks (not the amount!) and cash prizes. All players and coaches receive a free customized wristband and other goodies.

Hug your coach, help up your opponent and don't let Mom see you get hurt.

Hoping to meet all of you,

Chris Davis,
Executive Director, Homeschool SportsNet
